

9th Annual International Symposium on “Higher Education in a Global World” 7-10 July 2025, Athens, Greece

Call for Papers

The aim of the symposium is to examine educational developments throughout the world in universities, polytechnics, colleges, and vocational and education institutions. Academics and researchers from all areas of education are welcomed. You may participate as a presenter of one paper, chair a session or observer. Consistent with the theme of ATINER's small academic events, all programs may include a few sessions on current topics in education and research.
